DEFENDANTS. *

PLAINTIFF CHAREST'S SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES AND REQUESTS FOR
ADMISSIONS, FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS TO DEFENDANTS UNDER FED.R.CIV.P.

COME NOW PATRICK J. CHAREST (hereinafter "CHAREST"), moves this Court to issue an ORDER to defendant's pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedures, Rules 33, 34 and 36, pursuant to the applicability of Rule 26; whereas Charest is hereinafter requesting that Defendant Wynne, as disclosed during defendants "Response To Motion To Compel" (hereinafter the "amended member") -ANSWER fully and in writing, the following interrogatories and admissions, under oath, affirmation, in accordance with the definitions and instructions respectfully set forth below, and within thirty (30) days after service of these Interrogatories, Request for Admissions, and furthermore, for the defendants to provide full disclosure, along with said answers herein, thereafter, copies thereof supporting evidentiary materials, as follows:

I. DEFINITION AND INSTRUCTIONS:

¶ 1. In responding to requests for Admissions, Interrogatories inclusive to the Production of Documents, defendants shall furnish not only such information, documents as available to them, either constructive or actual possession, also full disclosure of any, all evidentiary materials as known to, available to, or in custody of, or control of, by any agent, employee, employer, representative, co-defendants, witness's as may have otherwise been taken into consideration before the Board by State statute as promulgated by Legislation, including but not limited to defendant's attorney and investigators, or those "notified by statute," to voice a[ny] objection to said parole consideration - unless documents, information, records, data, or transcripts from the December 2005 Parole Hearing are, or will be claimed hereinafter deemed, considered to be privileged from production or discovery, by law.

¶ 2. If defendant's consider any documents, information, data, records, transcripts, inter alia, falling within Charest's requests for Production of Documents, attached heretofore separately, as being privileged from DISCOVERY, Charest request's that, at this time or thereafter, when defendants respond to the Request for Production, that the defendant's serve upon Charest, a written list of the documents so withheld from discovery; and identify each and every document by date, author or party, by name, address of each and every person, party or witness having copies of said same documents, information, data, records; inclusive to any transcripts of December 2005 hearing, then provide a legal basis for which the document is considered to be privileged from production, re-production, photo-copying by discovery, or, as an alternative to, allow this Court to "review such at an in camera hearing."

¶ 3. These Admissions and Interrogatories are prevalent to Charest's discovery requests, and are to remain as continuing and to be supplemented in accordance with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 26(e). However, in the event that any information or documents come to defendant's attention, whether constructive or actual possession, custody or control of the defendant's, their attorney of record, or such other interested person's, parties, agency, employees, employers, subsequent to the filing of defendant's response / answers hereto, which documents, records, or information are responsive to any and all Interrogatories or Request for Admissions, but which were not included in defendant's initial answers / responses thereto, said additional information, documents, data, records, videotapes, inter alia, shall be furnished to Charest, or in the interim thereafter, any Court appointed stand-in counsel, as soon as possible or unless otherwise specified by this Court, or upon subsequent motion.

¶ 4. In responding to Charest's DISCOVERY requests, defendant's are to furnish documents, records, data, information, transcripts of said December 2005 hearing, memorandum, inter alia, utilized to consider, and then deny parole, whether constructive or actual possession of, as available to defendant's, their agents, employees, employers, co-defendants, witness's, or representatives, such as attorney of record, but not limited to thereof.

¶ 5. With regard to Charest's Requests for Admissions and pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 36, defendant's shall specifically answer the matter or set forth in detail their reasons why answering / responding party, person, defendant's, co-defendants or representatives cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance or the requested admission, and when good faith requires defendant's shall qualify an answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested; defendant shall specify as much of it, as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. Defendants may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless defendant's state that they have made a lawful, and reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by the defendant's is insufficient to enable them to admit or deny. If defendant's consider that a matter of which an admission has been requested and presents a genuine issue of material fact, for trial, they may not, on that ground alone, object to the Charest's requests; defendant's may, subject to the provisions of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 37(c), deny the matter upon setting forth a lawful, legal reason why defendant's cannot admit or deny it.

¶ 6. As a courtesy, in answering / responding to any and all DISCOVERY requests herein, or thereafter, defendant's are asked to please preface said answers / responses with: "Interrogatory or Request for Admission, Production, being Answered."
